

Intention Setting Meditation Practice

May all things connected to ... ,directly or indirectly, flourish

May the benefits of these intentions and actions always increase and never diminish

May they be felt through all space time dimensions.

May all initiatives of and all those involved directly or indirectly, be for the highest benefit of all sentient beings

May all those directly or indirectly involved with, experience source-fed abundance in all its forms.

May all things and people connected with be a source of unconditional love, compassion, joy and abundance

-- This part is for those who are working with products / activities specifically aimed at healing Gaia --

May everything created by directly or indirectly, heal all aspects of the Earth - physical, energetic, karmic, spiritual - through all timelines.

May the Earth, all its resources: water, air, plants, soil, all living things be regenerated, protected and loved by all those who come into contact, directly or indirectly, with Regen Loops and its initiatives

May all forms of existence and elements be healed, protected and regenerated:

- animals - from microbes to the largest animals,
- plants - from the smallest to the largest,
- minerals - from the smallest trace to the largest crystal formations and mountains,
- water - from the smallest drops of dew to the mightiest and deepest of oceans and wells
- earth in all its forms - from the driest dust to the heaviest loam
- and air - which through our breath is the connection, the bridge of the spirit and the physical

May this process begin even with the mere thought of these projects and may it never diminish.

May all those who ever hear or see the names and all those involved directly or indirectly with be inspired to work for the happiness of all sentient beings and the restoration and regeneration of the Earth through their wisdom and their compassionate actions

May they be inspired to connect deeply with their own unique way of serving and offer their gifts to the world and to themselves for the highest benefit of all beings

May all those who walk, drive or fly by any initiative of be inspired to become enlightened in their actions and may they become perfect caretakers and custodians of this planet, space and all other planets and universes known or unknown and all their inhabitants, visible or invisible.

May all obstacles for any and all initiatives of be removed easily and for the highest benefit of all sentient beings in all space time dimensions.

May all thoughts, words and deeds of come from the purest source enlightened energy, love and compassion that created

May this work be for my highest benefit and for the highest benefit of all beings in all space time dimensions.

And so it is.

OM AH HUM.
